New Silver Grill Cocktail Lounge Center for Old-Time Hospitality

As modern as tomorrow's headlines and yet retaining an old-time hospitality, the Silver Grill Cocktail Lounge was opened this week in the rear of the Silver Grill cafe at 1528 Cravens avenue. Here, in a spacious, newly-decorated and indirect lighted room, Frank and Lou Thobois, owners of the Silver Grill, have created a refreshment center to become a popular rendezvous.

Focal point of attraction is an expensive new streamline bar, built of beautiful mahogany, walnut and maple. Modern new cocktail chairs and tables form a restful, friendly atmosphere. In the rear of the lounge, a private cocktail and banquet room is under construction. This is designed to accommodate groups from six to 60, according to the Messrs. Thobois.

Presiding over the lounge's service is "Big Bill" Shally, well-known and experienced dispenser. He has the finest ingredients at his disposal, the bar Scotch being Black and White, bar whiskey by Sunnybrook and bar gin from Gordon's.

Over the bar is an excellently mounted puma, which Electrician E. J. Scott bagged on one of his many hunting trips. Other trophies of Scott's marksmanship, such as deer and antelope heads, adorn the walls.

Read these few simple rules: 1. Write a four-line rhyme based on some classified advertisement which appears on the regular classified pages of The Herald and News.

Your verse must concern some particular ad—not classified ads in general. (Be sure to see rule No. 5.)

2. Write on but one side of the paper, and be sure to paste a clipped copy of the advertisement about which you write on the same side of the sheet—preferably above the rhyme.

3. Date each rhyme you send in. 4. Print your name and address in full and mail your verses to the "Classified Ad Rhymes Contest Editor," Herald-News Office, Torrance, Calif.

5. You may write more than one rhyme at a time (as many as there are ads if you wish) but each one must be on a separate sheet of paper and on a different date each time. You may write each week on the same ad, if you desire.

All simple rules to be guided by about them's. Please be careful and observe them thoroughly in order that an otherwise worthy poem is not discarded. If you don't win the first time, you may try again. Only Herald-News employees and relatives are barred from competition.

Mail Service Badly Hit Here by P. E.'s Move

"I have been advised that relief of the present situation would be given prompt attention and action as soon as possible," Postmaster Conner is telling those who have found fault with the restricted service here. "The abandonment of P. E. lines through the county has created serious problems in the railroad mail service and these are being investigated by postal officials in the area."

Letters dropped in the post-office after 5 p. m. and not "worked" to clear the office on the 5:46 mail train now do not leave Torrance until 6:05 a. m. the next day—too late for afternoon delivery in Los Angeles, it is reported. Industrial firms, particularly the Columbia Steel, National Supply and Rubbercraft, are hard hit by the curtailed service.

Their extensive correspondence throughout the southwest had received excellent mail service under the old schedule. Mail received at 11:27 was delivered to them by 12:30, affording time to answer queries and air-mail replies on the same day. This is not possible now. Under the present schedule only one eastern mail is received daily as the 2 p. m. mail is from the north.
